ATLANTA

After a multivitamin hydrating facial ($95), Frederick Work, M.D., suggests MD Skincare Alpha Beta peels (above, $72).

EL SEGUNDO

Lucy Liu (above) combats the sun with vitamin C facials ($110).

LOS ANGELES

Also on hand at this pristine spa is hair guru Philip B., who repairs damaged roots for the likes of Charlize Theron (above) through soothing scalp treatments ($200).

BOSTON

30 Newbury Spa/30 Newbury St.; 617-266-7606 THE SCOOP Grey's Anatomy's Ellen Pompeo (above) keeps her skin bright at this townhouse clinic overseen by John Anthon, M.D. Try one of the spa's seven signature peels ($75-$150): Some lightly exfoliate while the potent medical-grade ones help improve acne and correct uneven skin texture and tone.

LA JOLLA

Spa MD/7630 Fay Ave.; 858-459-6868 THE SCOOP South of L.A., Jamie-Lynn DiScala and Courtney Thorne-Smith (above) make pilgrimages to this skin mecca with waterfalls and bamboo floors. Mitchel Goldman, M.D., of The Swan, offers microdermabrasion ($150), peels ($85-$150) and gentle botanical facials ($125), as well as free antiaging lectures.

MIAMI

Miami Institute for Age Management/1441 Brickell Ave.; 305-624-0009 THE SCOOP Lab coats are as prevalent as terrycloth robes at this luxurious center known for facial laser resurfacing ($2,100); patients can relax afterward at the upstairs Four Seasons hotel or unwind in a plasma-TV lounge before a clarifying mask ($100).
